

Community Housing Development Corporation
Richmond, CA

Project Title	Contra Costa - Moving Assets Toward Community Hands Program
Contact Information	Pamela Salsedo 1535 Third Street, Suite A Richmond, CA 94801 (510) 412-9290 x27
Grant Amount	$105,000
Nonfederal Support	$105,000
Project Period	September 2004 – September 2009
Highlights	Contra Costa - Moving Assets Toward Community Hands Program (CC-MATCH) will offer 44 IDAs while also helping as many as 250 individuals and families enhance their financial education knowledge and opportunities. Participants will receive financial literacy training to support their ability to open and manage bank accounts and improve financial self-sufficiency. The program will provide a match rate of $5 to $1 to participants for first home purchases, and a match rate of $2 to $1 to participants seeking business capitalization or post-secondary education. Participants savings will be matched up to $2,000.
Target Population	Low-income and very low-income working households in Contra Costa County, California, with particular emphasis on the North Richmond and Bay Point communities.
Grantee/Collaborative Description	Community Housing Development Corporation (CHDC) is a nonprofit organization whose purpose is to increase the supply of decent, quality, affordable housing and enhance economic opportunity in impoverished neighborhoods. In conjunction with the North Richmond Task Force, CHDC helped form the Contra Costa IDA Coalition, a partnership of community-based organizations; city, county and Federal agencies; and financial institutions. During 2003, with the support of a Federal technical assistance grant, coalition members developed this countywide asset-building program, which was later named CC-MATCH.